

First Advantage API Provider Setup

Last Modified on 03/16/2020 3:40 pm EDT

In order to authenticate an instance of the First Advantage connector, you must create or already have an account with them. You then need to provide your Account Id, the Authorization key and Host Name. For more information about generating authorization credentials for an integration, refer to First Advantage API documentation.