How do you Enable SSL if PostgreSQL requires SSL for Authentication?

Unfortunately, the PostgreSQL connector cannot be configured to send requests using SSL to SSL enabled Postgres servers because adding self-signed certs to our database poses a security audit risk. Given this information the solution is to use Ground to Cloud (G2C) for secure DB connections.