Debugging limits on Large Formula Steps

Formula steps that are as heavy or more than 1mb in size for a single step can take more time to load and generate values which cannot be debugged in SAP Open Connectors.

If the Formula steps are large, the application shows a loading spinner and may also result in session time out.